

	Film Name	TRT	Genre	Region	Synopsis
1	24 Leeches	10	Energy/Climate Change/Resources	Ontario, Canada	One part family adventure, one part environmental film, 24 Leeches is a tribute to a father's best friend and adventure partner, his 10-year-old son. This film documents a family canoe adventure to the Slate Islands of Ontario, Canada and more importantly a way of life
2	30° Below	3	Adventure	Fairbanks, AK	This mini documentary follows an Alaskan musher and his relationship with his sled dogs in the barren, harsh, and beautiful landscapes near Fairbanks, AK.
3	A Community Conservation Effort	12	Land Preservation	Kentucky	What started as a small group of conservationists in the early '70s grows into a massive movement that changed the entire course of a community. Greenspace Inc. forms community partnerships and carries the torch of preservation on its way to becoming Kentucky's First Urban Trail Town.
4	A Fisher's Right to Know	17	Water/River Issues	Alabama	Fishers throughout East Alabama depend on the mighty Coosa River for food, recreation, and a family pastime that goes back generations. But do fishermen and women-and their families-have a right to know which fish are safe to consume? Not currently in Alabama, the River State. Coosa Riverkeeper and other advocates are working to give fishers across the entire state that right.
5	A Message From The Future of Paradise	7	Activism	Northern California	In 2018, the historic Camp Fire destroyed the town of Paradise, CA and killed 85 people. In its wake, the community gathered to talk about their values and enact them in the rebuilding. Their vision ensured housing and employment for the survivors, and an economy and community that are resilient in disaster and in harmony with nature. Comprised of 12 original paintings documented with stop-motion, A Message From The Future of Paradise is set 50 years in the future and reflects on the rebuilding process in Paradise, in turn creating a model for other communities.
6	A Mother's Love	3	Energy/Climate Change/Resources		In 2020, life came to a grinding halt. Hopefully, in the resultant silence we are able to hear that our planet's whispers have become screams. A Mother's Love , a spoken word piece by actor and activist Lena Georgas and brought to life with the help of director Greg Yaitanes and the musical creations of Bill Barclay, gives voice to those hopes.
7	A Northern Light	13	Water/River Issues	USA	The film A Northern Light follows Riverhorse Nakadate as he makes his way by canoe through endless miles of wilderness to celebrate the stunning and surreal lakes and forests, illuminate and juxtapose the serious and perilous threats at hand, and to show a deep poetic reverence to the last remaining places of incomparable beauty.
8	American Ocelot	33	Wildlife	Texas	This is the story of one of the most endangered and beautiful wild cats in the United States. With fewer than 100 remaining in the US, the ocelot is genetically isolated and only exists in Texas. With many factors acting against them, there is still hope for their survival... if opposing parties can come to an agreement on their management methods.
	Baked Fish -	4	Oceans	Spain	What happens if there is so much plastic waste floating in the oceans that the fish disappear? Baked Fish - Peix al forn is an ironic vision of the future.
9	Barriers to Bridges	19	Environmental Justice	Alabama	There has never been a more important time for all people to be able to participate in the environmental movement. Yet many barriers keep BIPOC (Black, Indigineous and People of Color) from feeling included in this movement. This film explores the ways in which organizations in Alabama are doing the necessary and critical work to make sure BIPOC are included. Through the lens of community science, individuals share their struggles to be included and organizations share their challenges and successes with creating more inclusive programs and opportunities.
10	Becoming Ruby	19	Adventure	USA	This is a film about inclusion, identity, and hand-drawn heroes. Becoming Ruby shows that if you can't find a hero, you can create your own. For mountain biker, skier, and artist Brooklyn Bell, that hand-drawn hero was a comic character named Ruby J. Using Ruby as a role model, Brooklyn set out to "live like her, breathe like her, be unapologetically black like her," finding her own identity in a mix of dirt, snow, art, and inclusion.

11	Beebox	2	Food/Farming	USA	This is a story of contemporary agriculture and a need for change, as told by a bee and its box.
12	Biodynamic Agriculture: Farming in Service of Life	5	Food/Farming	USA	Biodynamic farming is a holistic, ecological, and ethical approach to agriculture, gardening, food, and nutrition. Biodynamic farming is regenerative farming; going above and beyond organic farming to help heal the planet. In this film, a few voices of Biodynamics share their view of the beautiful harmonies that exist within nature and how following Biodynamic practices can heal the land, influence our food systems and, in turn, nourish our health.
13	Born From Junk	15	Adventure	CO, USA	Tracing the outlaw roots of mountain biking back to its raw beginnings in Crested Butte, Born From Junk follows a crew of unlikely pioneers in pursuit of wild times in the mountains which then blossomed into a global phenomenon.
14	Camel Finds Water	9	Adventure	British Columbia	Narrated, styled, and scored like a fable, this is the yarn of one Trevor Gordon who pursues the quirky dream of restoring a wrecked boat and putting it out to sea off the coast of British Columbia, where he and his first mate, Tosh Clements, want to surf remote breaks. The whimsical moral: "If you can't buy your dream off a lot, build it yourself."
15	Chasing Ghosts	15	Adventure	FL, USA	In their quest to identify the pollinator of the ghost orchid for the first time, a team of explorers, photographers, and filmmakers spent three summers standing waist-deep in alligator and snake-laden water, swatting air blackened by mosquitoes, and climbing to sometimes nausea-inducing heights. They came away with a startling new discovery - and an even deeper love for Florida's wildest wetlands - revelations that may help to conserve both the endangered orchid and its shrinking home.
16	Common Ground	10	Water/River Issues	USA	Conservation isn't always the common thread between the tribes, ranchers, and government. This film shows how water can bring opposing interests towards finding a Common Ground.
17	Dani Burt	11	Health	San Diego, CA	For the first few days after she awoke from her coma, Dani Burt didn't know her right leg, from just above the knee down, was gone. When the doctors finally told her the full extent of her injuries, Burt, an active, hungry-for-life person, wasn't sure if she could go on. But she found the courage to continue through surfing, which led her on a path to becoming the first-ever women's World Adaptive Surfing champion.
18	Dear Mother Nature	30	Environmental Justice	Hawaii, USA	Wyn Wiley (he/him), aka Pattie Gonia (she/her), has made waves over the past year as an environmental advocate drag queen. We follow Wyn as he travels to Hawaii to see first-hand the impacts of careless consumption and plastics on Mother Nature. Wyn meets with scientists, non-profit leaders, volunteers, then rallies the Pattie community to lead a beach clean-up. Ultimately, Wyn partners with sustainable fashion designer, Angela Luna, to create three dresses that personify the plastics crisis.
19	Disappearing Penguins	15	Oceans	Antarctica	A team of scientists travels to Elephant Island, a remote island off the Antarctic peninsula, to find out how its penguin population is faring. Penguins are not just charismatic animals. They are a keystone species in Antarctica and an important indicator of the health of the Antarctic ecosystem. The results from this research expedition made headlines around the world and contribute to the call for protection of Antarctica through large scale ocean sanctuaries. The film is narrated by Alison Sudol, actress, singer, and Antarctic ambassador for Greenpeace.
20	District 15	23	Environmental Justice	CA, USA	Communities for a Better Environment does critical work on environmental justice and empowers Californian communities to stand up to polluting industries and build a green energy future. This short film highlights the hope and tenacity of the young activists of Wilmington, California as they push the Los Angeles City Council to prohibit new and existing oil and gas drilling operations within 2,500 feet of homes, schools, and hospitals.
21	Farmscape Ecology	27	Food/Farming	NY, USA	Can farming and wildlife co-exist? Farmscape Ecology seeks to explore this question. A 1,500-acre research farm in New York's Hudson Valley serves as backdrop of studies into soil, water, wildlife, and native meadows. The results may surprise you.
22	Feathers In Flight: The Bird Genoscape Project	15	Wildlife	CA, USA	Biologist Mary Whitfield has spent two decades studying one of North America's rarest birds: the Southwestern Willow Flycatcher. Not much is known about their migratory route, so Mary has joined a cutting-edge effort to gather data on birds' genomes from individual feathers, connecting breeding and wintering populations of the same species and providing critical information to conservationists and managers. The Bird Genoscape project brings together researchers from all over the Americas in an effort to protect the birds that tie the Western Hemisphere together.

23	Flotsam	10	Adventure	FL, USA	A Miami native, David Gauzens knows glitz—but he shuns it as part of a small, gritty band of kayak fishermen who forsake flashy boats for utilitarian pieces of plastic to pursue their passion. High seas, storms, even capsizing don't deter David from paddling 6 miles out to sea for exhaustive encounters with prehistoric sport fish—and he learns in the process how little he needs to be content.
24	Free as Can Be	31	Adventure	CA, USA	When Jordan Cannon, a young climber infatuated with climbing history, meets climbing legend Mark Hudon, a Yosemite big wall free-climbing pioneer, they form an unlikely partnership around a common goal. While Cannon wants to complete an all-free ascent Freerider on El Capitan in a day, Hudon hopes to free the route in as many days as it takes, becoming the oldest guy to free climb El Cap.
25	From Kurils With Love	24	Wildlife	Russia	Vladimir, a scrappy but aging Russian marine mammal biologist, unexpectedly hitch hikes aboard a boat filled with adventure photographers out of a desperate need to return to his science monitoring stations. His boat, 2 weeks prior, was lost to the explosion of the Raikoke volcano. He is on a mission to help fulfill his quest to understand and protect the Kuril Islands before his age fails him, and so together the team sets out in one of the most remote and accessible volcanic island chains in the world to help Vladimir.
26	Hanford—A Future Worth Fighting For	3	Environmental Justice	Pacific Northwest	Tribal nations, including the Yakama Nation, have treaty-protected rights to use and inhabit the Hanford site—an area half the size of Rhode Island—and the Columbia River. Hanford is the most toxic place in America. A legacy of WWII and the Cold War, Hanford—and the groundwater below—contains some of the most toxic and radioactive pollution on Earth. Now, the U.S. Department of Energy proposes to abandon dangerous nuclear waste buried in massive underground tanks. Hanford might be the most toxic place in America, but it is a place worth fighting for.
27	Here We Stand	11	Environmental Justice	Pacific Northwest	For generations, conservation has been about keeping people from places. Now, Save the Redwoods League and Teresa Baker ask what it would look like for conservation to include all people, even those that normally are in the margins.
28	If We Take Care of the Land and Water, It Takes Care of Us	4	Water/River Issues	CO, USA	Young Fina lives in San Luis, Colorado, one of the state's oldest towns. Her family and community keep an historic tradition of equitable distribution of water. She shares how maintaining that practice into modern times sustains the spirit of community and the strength of generational farms and ranches.
29	Immolation	8	Wildlife	CA, USA	Wildfire is the end and beginning of a process that has been occurring for millennia. Immolation is a cinematic journey through time that bears witness to this cycle as the land is scorched by flame, then begins the long period of regrowth and recovery. Filmed over the course of several years throughout numerous fire zones in California, this unique short film utilizes several special camera techniques to tell the story of this distinct process of destruction and rebirth.
30	It's Me, Landon	4	Land Preservation	Northern Canada	Eight-year-old Landon Moise shows us around his favourite forested spots in his home community, Clearwater River Dene Nation. He explains why the environment is important.
31	Last Call for Moose Mountain	6	Land Preservation	MN, USA	In Minnesota, backcountry skiers are fighting to protect their most coveted terrain. Moose Mountain, located in Superior National Forest, is the crown jewel of skiable terrain in Minnesota. A local ski resort has applied for permission to develop this public land in a massive expansion. Superior Highland Backcountry, a grassroots group of backcountry skiers, offers an alternative vision.
	Life of a Plastic Cup	4	Water/River Issues	Wales, UK	In Life of a Plastic Cup , we follow the adventures of a small plastic cup that, after being used just once at a party, is carelessly discarded, resulting in a trip to the ocean. The film focuses on the very topical problem that is plastic pollution in our seas and oceans, seen through the eyes of an unwilling victim, and portrayed by film students in an innocent way that only a young person can.
32	Love is the Way	46	Environmental Justice	Arctic	The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is a landscape of connections. This place is the heart of generations of protection, lifelong friendships, and iconic wildlife migrations. Love is the Way tells the stories of these connections, and the power of the continuing efforts to keep oil companies out of the Refuge's sacred coastal plain.
33	Made in Voyage	25	Adventure		Who hasn't dreamed of putting their life on hold to embark on an adventure where only your imagination sets the boundaries for what is possible? A trip where time stands still, far removed from the responsibilities, social engagements, and smartwatches of today's fast-paced 21st century lifestyle. Cody and Kellyn turned this dream into a reality.
34	Magali	5	Environmental Justice	Peru	Magali Salinas has dedicated 15 years of her life to rescuing, rehabilitating, and releasing wild animals in the Peruvian Amazon rainforest. In this film, as she prepares to release a group of Howler Monkeys, she talks about her life and the struggles she faces in her work.

35	Matagi Mālohi: Strong Winds	3	Environmental Justice	Tuvalu	The Pacific Climate Warriors, born out of the low-lying Pacific Islands, are an indigenous and youth lead movement who now have been on the front lines of climate change for decades -- their rally cry is "we are not drowning, we are fighting." In their own words " Matagi Mālohi tells the story of our journey to uplift our people and shape a narrative that paints us not as victims of the climate crisis but as the leaders, the healers, the nurturers, the artists, the gardeners, the growers, the seafarers, and the navigators we are."
36	Myrtle Simpson - A Life On Ice	34	Adventure	N/A	Myrtle Simpson - trailblazer, skiing pioneer, adventurer, writer, mother, and polar explorer; her life has taken her around the globe from Spitzbergen to Greenland, from the Northpole to Surinam. She has undertaken journeys most people only dream about, all while writing 13 books, collecting plants for museum botanical collections, and raising four children. Today, at the age of 90, she continues to explore the world and she believes more adventures await.
37	On the Fenceline: A Fight for Clean Air	25	Environmental Justice	PA, USA	After a bankrupting explosion in June, the future of the largest and oldest oil refinery on the east coast remains unknown. Philly Thrive, an organization of frontline residents and environmental activists, escalates their actions as they fight to keep the refinery closed for good.
38	PATHFINDER - Life beyond fear	10	Adventure	Norway	A tale about the human spirit, PATHFINDER - Life beyond fear , follows six world-class slackliners on a highlining mission deep into the Norwegian mountains to attempt something that has never been seen before: Walking a thin line, elevated in the vastness between two colossal cliffs, illuminated only by the mystical northern lights.
39	Paving Tundra	27	Land Preservation	Alaska, USA	The Brooks Range is North America's most rugged wilderness and one of Earth's largest roadless areas. In 2013, the State of Alaska proposed building a 225-mile industrial access road to facilitate the construction of an open-copper pit mine near the village of Ambler. We traveled 350 miles along road corridor into the Brooks Range to question the meaning of progress and ask what may be lost if the tundra is paved to Ambler. Narrated by Harry "Supluāñiq" Douglas and Kristin Gates.
40	Pedal Through	14	Adventure	OR, USA	Director-lead Analise Cleopatra had never camped or ridden a bike off the pavement when she decided to plan a week-long mountain biking adventure with an all black female team. Together, they traverse the Oregon backcountry on an adventure full of exploration, curiosity, waterfalls, old growth forest, sparkling starscapes, and deep healing. With raw authenticity, Analise shares all the intimate foibles, fear, fun, and beauty of discovering her place in the outdoors as she leans into uncertainty, accepts support, and trusts herself on this wild ride.
41	Puri	15	Water/River Issues	Chile	With water as the central focus, Puri explores human development and shows the gradual distancing away from Nature and its life cycles. Native leaders, avant-garde scientists, thinkers, and well-known ecologists are interviewed in order to understand their cosmovision and relationship with this vital element. What is more valuable than water? Can we live without it? Puri invites us to reflect and to take charge of our individual actions in order to generate real change and lead us to a new development paradigm.
42	Raised on Rainbows	9	Water/River Issues	CO, USA	Having kids and still pursuing a passion for fly fishing can be a challenge. For this Colorado couple though, sharing the sport with their children has brought new depth, patience, and an even stronger desire to preserve the rivers they love for generations to come.
43	Resilience is in Our Nature	2	Environmental Justice	OR, USA	A snapshot of the Portland, Oregon community during the COVID-19 pandemic and Black Lives Matter uprising, Resilience Is In Our Nature captures resilience that can be found within us and around us. Whether it's putting a mask on and enjoying outside, learning how to thrive and grow in quarantine, maintaining balance physically and mentally in nature, or a small business adapting and staying afloat - this film centers the fabric of what makes Oregon's neighborhoods, cities, and state a special place to live.
	River Looters	4	Adventure	OR, USA	Three river surfers turned obsessed free divers hunt for lost belongings in the Deschutes River. When not on a quest to reunite people with their lost belongings, they dive for trash. River Looters introduces us to most water logged and shreddy good samaritans in Oregon.
44	Saving Buffalo Reef	11	Environmental Justice	Great Lakes, USA	The Buffalo Reef in Lake Superior provides invaluable spawning habitat for Lake Trout and whitefish, but is threatened by stamp sands from historical mining activities. Saving Buffalo Reef shows the collaborative effort to restore the reef and fishery for the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community and beyond.
45	Still River, Silent Jungle	9	Water/River Issues	Bolivia	In this environmental short film, indigenous activist Ruth Alipaz Cuqui guides us through her inner struggle of embracing the limelight in order to protect her river and people. There is still time to stop the Chepete-Bala mega dam proposals before they are built, and Ruth has no intention of giving up.

46	Stories from the Blue: Discovering Inner Earth	6	Adventure		"For me and for my colleagues, we look into the darkness and we see opportunity." Many think Jill Heinerth and fellow cave divers are nothing but adrenaline junkies. Come along as Jill takes us on a journey that dispels this myth, and find out how her exploration of inner Earth is furthering understanding of our planet.
47	Stories from the Blue: Million Waves Project	6	Oceans		"What if doing something was better than doing nothing?" That's the question that sparked the Million Waves Project, which works with Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary to turn marine debris into 3D-printed prosthetic limbs. Watch our Stories from the Blue to hear how they're making a difference for people and the ocean.
48	Stories from the Blue: Ocean Guardians	7	Oceans		The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Ocean Guardian School Program provides opportunities for kids to get out in their environment to do hands-on, stewardship-based projects. Come along as we meet those who have fostered the growth of this important program and the children who are the future guardians of our planet.
49	Strike with Us	2	Environmental Justice		9 year old Hawkeye Huey has been hearing a lot about climate change and the climate crisis we are facing, and it's freaking him out! He - and every other child - has the right to a safe environment. This film was built to help support and drive attention to the ongoing Youth Climate Strikes happening around the world demanding action from our politicians. If you are freaked out too, then join us, and students around the world, in this fight.
50	Tabira	17	Wildlife	Spain	During his career as a vet, Alfonso Bañeres has recovered hundreds of birds of prey and wild animals. But among all of them one stand out among others. Tabira tells the story of a family of veterinarians who adopted a chick that nobody wanted. The unexpected arrival of a raptor ends up becoming a daughter and a high-flying sister, changing their lives forever. A year later, the winds carry Irati's and Alfonso's words, reminding them of the love they feel for the one that will always be their best friend: a Harris's Hawk called Tabira.
51	The Adventures of Zack and Molly	15	Oceans	Gulf of Mexico	A new, four-part video series, The Adventures of Zack and Molly is about an unlikely duo exploring the deep ocean produced by ECOGIG in collaboration with Sherman's Lagoon creator and filmmaker Jim Toomey. Zack is more interested in the small world of his smartphone than the larger world around him. His online request for a roommate is answered by Molly, a tech-savvy Dumbo Octopus on a mission to tell the world about the importance of the deep ocean. Molly wants to use Zack's apartment for her global communications headquarters, but Zack is skeptical. To win Zack over, Molly takes him to her deep ocean home in the Gulf of Mexico to see its unique features and diverse marine life, and to help him understand how human activities threaten its health.
52	The Church Forests of Ethiopia	9	Land Preservation	Ethiopia	Over the past century, farming and the needs of a growing population have replaced nearly all of Ethiopia's old-growth forests with agricultural fields. This film tells the story of the country's Church Forests-pockets of lush biodiversity that are protected by hundreds of churches "scattered like emerald pearls across the brown sea of farm fields."
53	The Crown	4	Adventure	USA	In The Crown , thru hiker, veteran, and Merrell Ambassador Will "Akuna" Robinson completes the Triple Crown of Hiking: the Appalachian Trail, the Pacific Crest Trail, and the Continental Divide Trail. This film shares Robinson's thoughts on this incredible achievement that made him the first African American male on record to complete the Triple Crown of Hiking. Robinson is known within the hiking community for inspiring others to take their first step to get out on the trail and experience the power it brings.
54	The Great Divide	19	Activism	CA, USA	In the tiny hamlet of Tooleville, California, a small cadre of water warriors - regular people living without access to clean water - fight for their right to safe, clean drinking water, despite the unbelievable odds and a system stacked against them.
55	The Other Side of the River	14	Activism	CA, USA	Homelessness along the Santa Ana River has drastically increased over the past decade near Riverside, California, causing frustration among community members and health concerns for both the people living along the river as well as the river itself. This short documentary explores life along the river and tells the complicated story of activism to save the river.
56	The Pangolin Man	17	Wildlife	Uganda	Known by locals as the "Pangolin Man", Moses Arineitwe strives to save the most illegally traded mammal in the world, hoping to change the minds of the very people who hunt them through the use of education and alternatives to poaching. But, with a lack of funding and resources, Moses must overcome his own struggles, in order to achieve his goal.

57	The Return	20	Wildlife	Vancouver, Canada	Something astonishing is happening in Vancouver. Despite exponential growth causing the salmon run to collapse for decades, concerned citizens refused to give up. Rewilding in a city this size is almost completely unique. With a quiet, observing lens, The Return explores hidden enclaves of wilderness where tiny smolts shimmer beneath the water's surface. Their future is now in our hands.
58	The River Guards	22	Water/River Issues	MA, USA	This short documentary tells the story of the Housatonic River in Western Massachusetts, where an environmental and health crisis has unfolded over the past 30 years. The film profiles the community of grassroots activists who have fought tirelessly against corporate negligence and government bureaucracy to clean the river. Now, with a new and contentious cleanup plan for the Housatonic River on the table, they are faced with an uncertain future.
59	The Waters that Heal Us	8	Health	VA, USA	This film follows a group of veterans from Washington, D.C. on a fly fishing trip to the Shenandoah Valley. Lead by the National Capital Chapter of Project Healing Waters, they learn to fish for trout and enjoy the therapeutic aspects of comradery and nature.
60	The Wild Divide	18	Wildlife	FL, USA	By horseback, foot, and paddleboard, three friends trek across Florida's imperiled backbone. The Lake Wales Ridge is an ancient ribbon of sand dunes that is a hotspot for biodiversity found nowhere else in the world. It is also a place steeped in a long tradition of agricultural heritage. Both are threatened by the rapid pace of change in Florida's wild interior. But can the backbone be held together? To experience this place and to meet the passionate stewards who call it home offers incite and inspiration on how we may one day bridge The Wild Divide .
61	Through The Breaks	10	Adventure	MT, USA	A float down the Upper Missouri River in eastern Montana reveals a spectacular, remote, and unspoiled prairie landscape, whose preservation is the work of the American Prairie Reserve. For boatbuilder Jason Cajune, the river trip carries on a family tradition; he grew up on drift boats in Glacier National Park, operated by his parents. As a boatbuilder, Cajune says, "I'm really just sort of a caretaker of an idea that came before," a succinct definition of conservation itself.
62	TranSending	9	Adventure		This film follows the journey of Erin Parisi as she comes into her own identity as a Transgender woman and trains for the Seven Summits to create awareness and visibility for the Trans community. TranSending showcases this journey of extensive vulnerability, heartbreak, and courage.
63	Uncle Elephant	4	Wildlife	Cambodia	This is the story of Tuy Sereivathana (Vathana), Cambodia Program Director of Wild Earth Allies, and his dream to work in the forest and protect elephants. Vathana is internationally recognized for his community-based Asian elephant conservation efforts - he is a Goldman Environmental Prize recipient and a National Geographic Explorer. His work over two decades has improved community well-being and reduced threats to Asian elephants and other wildlife.
64	Vertical: The Future of Farming	16	Food/Farming		A new generation of urban, indoor farmers approach to food production offers the potential to combat climate change while feeding hundreds of millions. The result, according to retired Columbia Professor Dickson Despommier, represents the "next evolutionary jump in humanity's quest for a reliable, sustainable food supply."
65	Water Flows Together	11	Environmental Justice	Southwest USA	Through the voice of Colleen Cooley, one of the few female Diné (Navajo) river guides on the San Juan River, Water Flows Together elevates the importance of acknowledging Indigenous land in outdoor recreation. The film is a meditation on the challenges Colleen and her community have faced, the kinship she has with the San Juan River, and the unique opportunities her role as a river guide affords as she seeks to create positive change.
66	Wild & Wool	23	Wildlife	Western, USA	Bighorn sheep, an icon of the American West, battle to survive as contact with the infectious disease, mycoplasma ovipneumoniae (m.ovi), carried by domestic sheep threaten these wild herds. A dedicated research team races to understand the complexities and challenges of m.ovi, before the next outbreak devastates the charismatic species.
67	Wild Climate	27	Energy/Climate Change/Resources	USA	Rural communities are already experiencing the impacts of climate change. Yet the majority of rural, western communities are represented by elected officials actively blocking solutions. Our goal is to break down these political barriers by elevating stories of those already experiencing the impacts of climate change to their livelihoods.